

The Family of Lawrence L. and Lottie Gilmer Carter

Census Enumerators listed names and dates as they understood the registrant who oft times had little or no education which led to numerous errors in names, dates and ages. I have tried to copy the census as recorded, where errors occur, I apologize. Death certificates are not available in Spartanburg for years before 1917 and Obituaries have not been put on microfilm for the years 1924 through 1929.

The 1940 Spartanburg/Glendale Census listed the household as;

Lottie Carter 34, widow/head of household

Children; Jean 12 Don 8

Lawrence L. Carter is buried in the Glendale Community Cemetery.

Grave marker; Lawrence L. Carter, February 22, 1897=February 1, 1938

The child; Harry L. Carter, September 3, 1925=October 29, 1925

Writer's comments; I don't recall ever having met Lawrence Carter but I knew all his family well. They were fine people, kind and enjoyable to be associated with. I believe all of the family worked in Glendale Mills at some point in their life. Don was a member of the Glendale Baptist Church while his mother and sister were members of the Glendale Methodist Church.
