

The Family and Descendants of Jeremiah Phil McKinnish
Glendale, South Carolina

Census Enumerators listed names and dates as they understood the registrant who oft times had little or no education which led to numerous errors in names, dates and ages. I have tried to copy the census as recorded, where errors occur, I apologize. Death certificates are not available in Spartanburg for years before 1917 and Obituaries have not been put on microfilm for the years 1924 through 1929.

Writer's comments; I knew all the McKinnish family well with the exception of Bobby. They were a fine community family, well liked and very friendly. After leaving the mill, Phil built a home on the Glendale Clifton road where he also operated a small store/small engine repair shop. He had a good business and was operating the store when he died. His son, Fred, took over operating the store before selling it and moving on the Clifton/Goldmine road where he and his son, Jeff, operated an auto repair shop before his death. Jeff continues to operate the repair shop. Except for Bobby and his family, who moved out of the Glendale area, most all of the family were (are) members of the Glendale Baptist Church.
